MESSAGE FROM FATHER GASE

My Dear Parishioners,

Happy Easter! We still find ourselves in the Octave of Easter in which we celebrate our Lord's Resurrection for 8 straight days, ending with this weekend's celebration of the Second Sunday of Easter, also known as Divine Mercy Sunday.

Many thanks to everyone who remembered me in a special way at Easter with cards, gifts, candy, and cookies. I am spoiled! Also many thanks to everyone who had a hand in making our liturgies last weekend so beautiful: our music director Robert McMahan, altar servers, lectors, and the team of volunteers who decorated the church. It is beautiful!!

This coming week there will not be daily Masses or confessions Tuesday through Thursday. I am going to be traveling with our middle school students to Washington DC. There will be Mass Friday morning, however, with Fr. Gary Walters here as the celebrant. I will be back in time for afternoon confessions and Mass on Saturday.

Also- a reminder that next Sunday is First Communion with a special Mass in the afternoon at 1:30 pm. Please keep our second graders in your prayers as they prepare to receive our Lord's Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity for the first time!

Have a great week!

Father Gase
